Synopsis: A special visitor joins Will at Mass on Sunday and suddenly the Mass will never be the same.

Questions For Discussion:

1. What do you usually do during Mass?
2. When was the last time you really thought about the words you were hearing and the prayers you were praying.
3. Can you identify with Will? If so, how?
4. It's not likely that any of us will have our guardian angels visit us in the way that Will's did. What can you do to help you focus better at Mass?
5. What kind of spiritual help can you tap into so that the Mass becomes transforming for you.?
6. How might your attitude toward Mass change if you were to remember the story of Emmaus and the Last Supper?
7. The last thing the Angel says to Will is, "What happens in there (the church) has to be shared out here (the world)." When you leave Mass, do you feel compelled to share the gospel? Why or why not?
8. How might REALLY paying attention to what's happening at Mass change your desire/willingness to share?
9. What empowers you during Mass to go out and share the Gospel after Mass?
